Deadline February 1, 2010

Mail to:
Community Foundation of North Central Washington
P.O. Box 3332
Wenatchee, WA 98807-3332
(509) 663-7716

Regular mail only – please don't use registered or certified mail.

No incomplete or late applications will be considered.

What To Include

1. General Information (Page 1).
2. Statement of Financial Need (Page 2) with Estimated Federal Student Aid Eligibility page attached. Complete these steps to answer Question #2 and to access the Estimated Federal Student Aid Eligibility page:
 - a) Go to www.fafsa4caster.ed.gov. Select "Use the fafsa4caster".
 - b) Answer the questions about your family's financial status and about your college plans. You should be able to complete the questions in no more than 30 minutes.
 - c) Once you've entered the information, fafsa4caster will calculate an Estimated Family Contribution. The calculation is displayed on the Estimated Federal Student Aid Eligibility page.
 - d) Print the Estimated Federal Student Aid Eligibility page. Write your name on it and include that page with the application. (A sample of the page follows this one).
 - e) Enter the Estimated Family Contribution amount on Question #2. Complete the rest of the Statement of Financial Need.
3. List of Activities, Honors and Community Involvement (Page 3). We developed this form of presentation to make it easier for the Selection Committees who review so many applications. All applicants are required to use only this format.
4. Personal Statement (Page 4). Here's your opportunity really stand out. Tell us about who you are and what your goals are for the future. (For example: Have you overcome obstacles or adversities? Have you experienced something amazing that has inspired and helped shape your life? What are your career goals? Who or what inspired you to select your field of study? etc.). Create the portrait of a winner. It should be no more than 2 double-spaced pages.
5. Transcript. If you have taken the SAT be sure the scores are included.
6. Letters of Recommendation. 2 letters are required. The letters can be mailed separately, but be sure those writing them are aware of the February 1 deadline since no incomplete or late applications can be processed.
7. Signed Certification and Release Form (Page 6).

Please don't include covers, staples, double-sided copies, pictures or newspaper articles.

Recommendation Form

To the applicant. Help those who write your recommendation letter as much as you can. Tell them about the focus of the scholarship and the February 1 deadline. How can they get the letter to you? Consider providing stamped envelopes if they will mail the recommendation to either you or the Foundation. Try to include the Letters of Recommendation with your application instead of asking the Evaluator to mail them separately. This helps ensure that your application is complete by the deadline because we cannot process incomplete or late applications.
